

Cambridge Access Surgery

This Publication Scheme gives a guide to the information made available by the general practitioners and the staff of the Cambridge Access Surgery as required by the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act 2000.

It has been adapted from the model Publication Scheme for General Practitioners, developed by the Information Commissioner.

Cambridge Access Surgery has always believed in openness, and most of the information we are now required to publish we have done so for years in our Practice Leaflet and Practice Website. For this reason this publication scheme will often refer you to our Practice Website www.mhcambridgeaccess.co.uk

PART I: INTRODUCTION

Your rights to information

- The Freedom of Information Act 2000 recognises that members of the public have the right to know how public services are organised and run, how much they cost and how decisions are made. From January 1st 2005 the FOI Act will oblige General Practices to respond to requests about information that it holds. These rights are subject to exemptions that will have to be taken into consideration before deciding what information can be released. In addition to accessing the information identified in the Publication Scheme, you are entitled to request information about Cambridge Access Surgery under the NHS Openness Code 1995.
- This document sets out where this information is available from. The publications are all free unless otherwise indicated. Where information is provided at a cost the charges will be available via the Practice Manager.
- Under the Data Protection Act 1998, you are also entitled to access your clinical records or any other personal information held about you. For this, please contact: Lesley Davis, Practice Manager, Cambridge Access Surgery, 125 Newmarket Road Cambridgeshire CB5 8HB 01223 358961
